Good morning Year 4

DON'T STOP UNTIL YOU'RE PROUD

I hope you had a lovely Easter break with your family and enjoyed lots of Easter eggs! Each day, I will add more learning to the website and extra challenges to Twitter so keep an eye out. Our Twitter page is @theOaksCPCedar.

I have also added some learning onto Mathletics. This week, I have set some decimal work which we haven't done before. Please use the BBC bitesize website for help with this learning. As of today, they will be uploading work to help you at home.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/levels/zbr9wmn>

Also, please use the textbooks at your own pace in your home learning packages. Please record your answers in the notebook.

As always, you can contact me on email at: lucy.henshall@theoaks.cheshire.sch.uk or via Twitter. I love to hear from you so please keep in touch.

I am missing you all very much.

Have a great week!

Challenge 1

Create a bug hotel. If you have access to a garden, create a small space for a bug hotel. Think about the different things you will need to create a desirable habitat. If you do not have a garden, use an old plastic bottle to create a habitat for bugs. You could use sticks, leaves etc. to make it a desirable bug hotel. Keep a tally chart of the different bugs you find.

Challenge 2

2. Laura-Lee is planning some activities to do whilst visiting a theme park. Below is a timetable showing how long each activity will take on each day. She only has 7 hours at the theme park and will need to spend 45 minutes for lunch.

Opening night

Tim took another deep breath. Inside his chest, he could feel his heart pounding like a bass drum. Again, he took slow, deep breaths and picked up his script. Flicking through the pages, he read through his lines quietly to himself, mumbling under his breath. All his hard work over the last few months had been for tonight. Crossing his fingers tightly, he wished for good luck.

"Tim, are you ready? You're on in 2 minutes," said Mr. Smith.

"I think so, Sir," said Tim in a shaky voice.

"Don't worry, you'll be fine, Tim. Break a leg!"

Slowly, Tim stood up and made his way towards the heavy, red velvet curtain. He pulled it to the side and stepped through.

1. How do you think Tim is feeling at the beginning of the text?
2. Explain how you know how he is feeling.
3. What do you think Tim is waiting to do?
4. What clues told you what Tim might be doing?
5. Who do you think Mr. Smith is?
6. Do you think "Opening Night" is a good title? Why?
7. If you had to give this text a different title, what would you call it?

A Busy Morning

"Ouchhhh!" screamed Toby. I ran into the living room to see Toby lying on the hard, wooden floor, tears rolling down his chubby, little cheeks. Behind me, I heard my mum walk into the room.

"What have you been doing to Toby?!" she shouted, her face turning a deep red. "Go upstairs; I haven't got time for this today."

"But-" I started to explain.

"Upstairs. NOW," Mum ordered. "And finish your packing, we need to leave for the airport in 20 minutes."

I stomped up the stairs to my room. It wasn't fair! Angrily, I started throwing things into my suitcase: sunglasses, a swimming costume, shorts, flip-flops.

1. How is Mum feeling when she walks into the room? How can you tell?
2. What does Mum think has happened and why?
3. What do you think the relationship is between Toby and the narrator?
4. Why do you think Mum says "I haven't got time for this today"? What is she getting ready for?
5. Where do you think the family might be going?
6. Explain what clues there are to where the family are going.
