Morning,

How is everyone today? I hope you are well. We will continue again today in the same style of home learning. I will add photos again for anyone who has run out of photocopies of the textbook, I hope you can see them clearly, let me know if there are any problems.

Chestnut

Morning all,

Hoping everyone is okay. I will continue to add images for anyone without a textbook, as I said yesterday, let me know if this is not a manageable way to do this.

Maths - I can compare and order numbers up to 1000.

Top tips

- Make counters if your child finds it difficult to use the images.
- Use scrap paper to draw for Challenge 2, Q2 onwards if your child needs a little more support.
