The Oaks Primary School

Happy half term!

Good afternoon families,

Thank you all for a wonderful half term! There have been so many special things going on in the last 7 weeks from trips to sporting events and it has been lovely to see so many of you at parents evening this week.

Ms Millington has been delighted to have 3 parent reading volunteers and we are looking forward to having these Reading Champions in school next half term to support our children with reading. If you would like to get involved, please let your child's class teacher know.

We will be starting a tutoring programme for a small group of children in each class. Letters will come home today from Ms Millington. This will take place after school on a Tuesday starting on 6th November running up to and including 14th December

Mrs Louise Roberts—Headteacher

Request from Reception

If you have any old wellies at home that your child has grown out of, Miss McIntosh and the Reception team would be most grateful for any donations.

We do our very best to make uniform, trips and clubs as cheap as we can for parents. We ask for contributions towards trips and visitors so that we can give children as many experiences as possible. Please could you bring contributions up to date via ParentPay.

Don't forget:
