

The Oaks Community Primary School

Pupil Newsletter 27.01.23

Happy Friday!

We hope you have had a wonderful week. Can you think of something that has made you smile in the last few days? Share it with someone else, it may just make them smile too. Have a brilliant weekend!

Something that may make you smile is this upcoming event: Ellesmere Port Comic Con is hosting a free to enter event on Sunday 28th January, which allows guests to sample a family friendly comic con and get the chance to meet different characters from popular tv franchises. There will also be a cosplay fancy dress competition for any budding superheroes, princesses or villains. The event is 10am-4pm at the Ellesmere Port Indoor Market.

Joke of the Week:

Why did the kids
cross the playground?
To get to the other slide.

Career of the week:

Job Title:

School Caretaker

What the role involves:

Day to day tasks of a school caretaker involves: carrying out basic repairs, cleaning or supervising cleaning, managing access to premises, planning site use and much more.

Average yearly salary:

£18,000 - £39,000

How do I work towards this?

To become a school caretaker you need to learn the roles and responsibilities needed for this job and make sure your CV is up-to-date. You can then start applying for jobs.

Pupil News:

Year 5 had smokebusters in this week. They learnt all about how to be safe around fire and what to do in an emergency. They were even lucky enough to get a go in the fire engine!

Emelia has been working very hard in all of her dance classes lately. She has received lots of certificates, medals and badges due to her dedication and determination. Well done Emelia, we are all very proud of you!

Happy Birthday
to...
- Amelia

Winning doesn't always mean being first.

Winning means you're doing better than you've done before.

