The Oaks Primary School

Good afternoon families,

Next week is our last week in school before the February half term break. Teacher strikes are planned for Tuesday 28th February and I wanted to give you early notice of our plans for this.

All classes will be closed except for Year 6 on Tuesday 28th February.

Year 6 are expected to be in and any non-attendance will be unauthorised. Year 6 had a lovely time having the school to themselves last time so I know that they will be eager to attend on the strike day.

I am aware that the strike day is the day after we return to school. I understand that it may be tempting to keep children off on the Monday. I urge you not to do this as the first Monday back is when children get hooked into their new class book and teachers have exciting lessons planned.

There are two further strike days planned for 15th & 16th March. I cannot yet say if these will go ahead or which classes may be affected.

Our food festival which took place after school yesterday was a huge success.

Thank you to Ms Millington and the Year 6 team for organising this. It was awesome to have some many countries represented through this community food event. This was also in support of Children's Mental Health week with the theme being Let's Connect!

Many thanks for your support.
