Pupil Newsletter 03.02.23

Happy Friday!

We hope you have had a fantastic week and are looking forward to spending some quality time with your friends, family, carers and people you love at the weekend. If you are up to anything exciting be sure to let your friends or teaching teams know. I'm sure they'd love to hear all about it.

Joke of the Week:

What kind of shoes does a banana peel love wearing?

Slippers.

Career of the week:

Job Title:
Social Worker

What the role involves:
Day to day tasks of a social worker involves: accessing people's needs, strengths and wishes, working with individuals and families to solve problems and make changes, organising support, keeping detailed records and much more.

Average yearly salary:
£27,00 - £42,000

How do I work towards this?
To become a social worker there are a few different paths you can take. You could complete an appropriate university degree, complete an apprenticeship or complete a graduate training scheme.

Pupil News:

We have celebrated NSPCC number day today! Thank you to everyone who brought in a pound and wore numbers to help raise money and awareness for a very worthy cause.

Remember: If you have any ideas, especially fundraising ideas, for school council please let your councillors in your class, Ms Jones or Ms Martin know.
